

Empowering Girls and Women

2022 Annual Report

Our mission is to help girls and women achieve economic self-sufficiency and realize life goals.

2022. It felt like the beginning of a re-emergence, didn't it? This cloud that had existed above us all seemed to finally be lifting in the back half of the year. It left us forever changed - but somehow more present in our day-to-day lives and focused on our future.

I feel like FFW has a very similar perspective as an organization. Throughout the pandemic, we focused on what we could manage day-to-day given the framework of what was safe — and never paused in pursuing our mission. We still raised funds, albeit without our biggest annual fundraiser, Inspire, since 2019. We continued granting to organizations and programs that share our mission. We continued granting to individual girls and women who needed financial assistance for education, for health and wellness, and who were in emergency situations. And as 2022 began to sunset in October, we held our first in-person annual gathering, Connect, since 2019 (read more about this event on p. 15).

Now, we have an opportunity to look to our future as an organization. We are using 2023 to make progress in growing our core competencies, addressing organizational sustainability, and streamlining our operations. These efforts will ideally free up more resources to direct to empowering girls and women in our community, and inject some much needed fun after all we've been through together along the way.

Of course, none of this would be possible without two very special groups — our donors, and our volunteers.

You, our donors, entrust us to help direct your charitable resources to places it can most impact. In this report, you'll read of how your generosity has impacted both individuals (p. 7) and nonprofits and the clients they serve (p.11). Your financial support is what makes the work we do possible. It really is that simple.

You, our volunteers, share your time and talents — not to mention hours upon hours of good, old-fashioned hard work — to fulfill the commitment we make to donors and to the girls and women in our community. Board directors, committee members, event support, admin support, now, in the past, and into the future: you are the beating heart of this organization. You give it life. Thank you for all you do.

ABOUT THE FUND FOR WOMEN

The Fund for Women began its journey in 2009, with twenty women sitting around the kitchen table of one of our founders, Rachel Wood. They saw barriers to girls and women in our community, keeping them from growing, achieving and excelling - and knew they could help. That inspiration led to the formation of the Fund for Women of the Southern Tier, Inc., an all-volunteer nonprofit organization, and the only dedicated funding source for girls and women living in Chemung, Schuyler, Steuben, and Yates counties in New York State.

Fueled by its supporters, FFW channels the power of community philanthropy to break down the barriers that persistently hold women back. Our hope is that every grant has the power to help transform a life by giving every girl and woman the confidence of knowing that other women believe in them and are here to help.

Our Grants - Snapshot

The Fund for Women supports and manages several grant programs that directly impact the lives of girls and women in our service area. We award to both individuals and nonprofit organizations, in the areas of education, health, and wellness.

Bosseler Wigs PLUS Cancer Patient Fund

The intent of this fund is to give women with financial need a path forward if they feel a well-made wig or head covering would improve their outlook; safeguard their privacy; increase their self-confidence; and provide them strength as they continue their recovery journey.

NONPROFIT GRANTS

Annual Nonprofit Grants

This grant is designed for organizations seeking support for programs, projects, and initiatives that focus on the education and/or health of girls and women within our four-county service area.

Empower Grant

$150,000, three-year partnership grant

It addresses unmet needs that significantly impact the lives of girls and women who have encountered substantial barriers to achieving self-sufficiency. The selected nonprofit administers the program and disbursement.

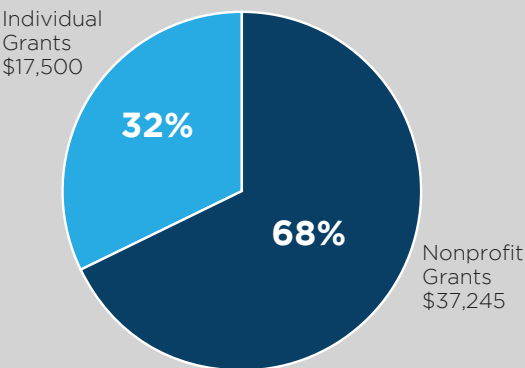

Our Grants - Annual Grants Cycle

FFW manages an annual grants cycle that opens for applications January 1 each year, and closes for applications March 1. This grant cycle awards educational grants to individuals and program support for nonprofits that serve our four-county area. An all-volunteer grants panel reviews and considers the merits of each application and makes recommendations to the Board for how best to distribute the available funds. The FFW Board votes on the grant recommendations, and disburses grant awards each June.

2022 Individual Awards for Education

FFW sponsors two different individual awards for education as part of our Annual Grants Cycle. We award $500 grants for those who need a little extra support in their educational pursuits. We also award Achieve Grants which are $2,500 awards for women who have faced significant challenges in meeting the added expenses associated with continuing education. We give preference in this category to women who are first in their family to attend college, are nontraditional adult learners, are looking for advancement in high demand fields, and/or have overcome significant obstacles to their educational advancement.

FFW Individual Educational Grants 2022

In 2022, FFW granted five $500 awards to deserving women in our community. These funds were used to cover expenses including the costs of books, tuition, and living expenses. We awarded individuals from Chemung (three) and Steuben (two) counties.

FFW Achieve Grants 2022

In 2022, FFW awarded six $2,500 grants to individual women pursuing educational opportunities. We were overwhelmed and humbled by the stories of the women applying for these grants. We awarded four individuals from Chemung and two individuals from Steuben. Featured below are snapshots of a few of their stories. We withheld names to protect the privacy of our grantees, but understanding their compelling stories reminds us all of the impact we can have on the lives of individual girls and women in our community.

2022 Achieve Grants - Impact Spotlights

Practically speaking, our Achieve grants help our grantees pay education bills today. But the impact lasts much longer. Through these grants we enable girls and women to pursue opportunities that lead to self-sufficiency, while reminding them that they have a rock solid community of support that believes in them. Below are sentiments expressed by two 2022 Award recipients that reflect why we do what we do.

Going back to school at 34 brings unique challenges, including a worry that I may have made a mistake. When I was gifted a Fund for Women Scholarship, I was given more than just a check; it meant more than just the financial support it provides. This scholarship signaled that this group of individuals who do not know me found my future worth investing in.

The validation that investment brings is enough to banish those thoughts of college being a mistake for me. The scholarship made me feel that this committee believed in me and trusted my decisions. The Fund for Women Scholarship has made me more determined to continue along the path I'm on, which is the most valuable gift of all.

Thank you so much for awarding me that grant. It meant a lot to my family and me. It's very exciting to be so close to completing my courses and on my way to get my license and pursue my career. This grant definitely helped with my schooling and alleviated some of the pressures of school and my financial burdens.

My family and I are forever grateful for the opportunity given to us by the Fund for Women. Thank you so much for everything!

Tanglewood Nature Center & Museum $1,000 - Chemung & Steuben counties

Meg Lowman Treetops Camp

This summer camp introduces young girls to nature and science in a safe and positive way with strong female teachers as role models, so they feel able, empowered, and excited to pursue science in the future. Using Meg Lowman (www.canopymeg.com) as an example of a successful local woman that has dedicated her life to working for the betterment of the environment, the girls learn to use the scientific method in various ways throughout the week and to use it not only in science but also in other areas of their lives. Throughout the camp, the girls mainly spend their time outdoors and foster an appreciation for our natural world.

The Regional Science & Discovery Center, Inc. $2,000 - Steuben county

Tools + Skills = Girls

Building trades is a field where girls and women are under-represented. Many women also lack the skills and confidence to use basic hand and power tools at home. The Tools & Skills program is designed to allow students to engage in hands-on activities that they can apply to everyday life at home, in the community, and at work.

Twin Tiers Baby Bank $2,000 - Steuben county

Twin Tiers Baby Bank

For the 47% of children ages 0-3 in our region who are living in poverty, diapers are not covered by food stamps, nor are they available at food banks. While SNAP monies can be used to purchase diapers, the check is expected to cover all other household expenses, and frequently diapers are last on that list. The Twin Tiers Baby Bank provides diapers, wipes, and ointment for families of young children, and helps to alleviate serious diaper rash and infections that might otherwise be experienced from staying in wet or dirty diapers for too long.

2022 Nonprofit Grants - Impact Spotlights

Family Services Society, Inc. Sewing Skills for Girls at the Corning Youth Center

“Thanks to funding from the Fund for Women, the Corning Youth Center was able to pilot a new program: Sewing Skills for Girls. The Corning Youth Center purchased sewing machines, supplies, and fabric and then began offering sewing classes to the girls who drop in every day after school. The girls who participated became more confident and more engaged with each other. The classes culminated in the creation of 20 warm, cheerful blankets that the girls donated to the Guthrie Cancer Center to be used by individuals receiving chemotherapy. The program was so successful that the girls have requested to continue the program and to create blankets for the Arnot Hospital Infusion Center next. The girls have gained important life-skills and have improved in confidence, self-sufficiency, pro-social behavior, and engagement with their peers and the community.”

Pam Dejneka, Grant Writer

Twin Tiers Baby Bank

“This past year we have seen a steady increase of customers come to the Baby Bank. Several indicate that their financial support programs have decreased and/or been canceled all together - especially as it pertains to their SNAP assistance.

Twice last year we helped out families that were in great need because they had just lost most of their baby items to house fires. We have also seen an increase in the number of grandparents coming in who now have grandchildren living with them...One particular grandmother whose grandchild had just been dropped off at her house because her daughter was going to jail was given diapers, wipes, A&D ointment and baby wash, and other donated baby items. She was so thankful for the Twin Tiers Baby Bank helping her start this new task.”

Sandy Ostebo, Treasurer

The Regional Science and Discovery Center Tools + Skills = Girls

“These funds allowed SDC to bring foundational knowledge and skills of tools and techniques to middle school students who may otherwise not have had the opportunity to learn. During an impromptu race to see who could hang a shelf the fastest, we learned the importance of having the proper tools; if the screwdriver is too short the risk of skinned knuckles and lack of leverage make things much more difficult. With all of the different skills and tools that were introduced, girls were able to walk away with skills that foster independence and self-sufficiency at home and in a school or work environment. By the end of the program one of the girls was using the skills she learned to help her mother renovate their bathroom.”

Christine Stull, Coordinator of Educational Programs

Catholic Charities of Chemung Providing Beds for Women in Need

“Catholic Charities of Chemung and Schuyler Counties was able to provide beds to women and children facing homelessness and/or fleeing domestic violence.

In November 2022, one of our advocates met a single mother of three children seeking assistance after fleeing a domestic violence relationship. Mom and children fled in the middle of the night leaving all belongings behind. The Fund for Women Grant provided this brave mother and her beautiful children with beds to place in their new home. We are so thankful to have the opportunity to provide for mothers and children facing such difficult circumstances.”

Katie Rhodes, Communications Coordinator

Our Grants - Ongoing Grants

Barriers to Care Grant

Barriers to Care Grants are designed to support women who are faced with financial obstacles as they seek treatment for breast cancer. This program provides up to $500 per woman to address expenses that may otherwise keep them from receiving treatment. Funds are used to cover costs for child care, transportation, utilities, and more. FFW is grateful to our donor base whose generosity has allowed for the uninterrupted continuation of this program, so we can support women at this critical time in their treatment and recovery journey.

Bosseler Wigs PLUS Cancer Patient Fund

This grant began with a donation from the family of Mary Alice Bosseler in honor of her life and her passion for helping others. Mary Alice's husband, George, her faithful caregiver and cheerleader, kept her vision for this program going until his passing in 2021.

This Fund is dedicated to girls and women who are struggling financially and cannot afford quality head coverings (e.g. wig, scarf, turban, hat, beanie) to address the hair loss that often accompanies cancer treatment.

The stress, anxiety, and vulnerability that comes with a woman's changing appearance is compounded when she does not have the means to address these changes in a way that makes her feel comfortable or secure.

The intent of this Fund is to give women in need a path forward to purchase quality head coverings to help improve their outlook, safeguard their privacy, and increase their self-confidence as they continue their recovery journey.

Total Grants Distributed since program start:
93 grants

2022 Grants per County:
Chemung - 9

Recipient Comments:
I am so grateful to have options to help me during chemo.

My self-confidence is low right now. I am sure a wig and head wrap will help.

I can't believe that I have options like these; thank you.

Healthcare costs are so high. Not having to worry as much about my appearance too is helpful.

Our Grants - Ongoing Grants

Empower Grant

"Arbor Housing and Development continues to be an amazing partner for Fund for Women. The funding stream managed by Arbor Housing and Development is vital in efforts to help girls and women when circumstances require quick and decisive action. It addresses gaps other programs are unable to cover and has become another tool in our community's toolbox of support."

*- Amy Truxon
President, Fund for Women*

The Fund for Women of the Southern Tier, Inc. named the first recipient of its Empower Grant with the selection of Arbor Housing and Development in 2019. The $150,000 grant paid over three years provided financial assistance to girls and women who have encountered obstacles or barriers in achieving self-sufficiency. This grant has become an invaluable conduit in reaching girls and women in need at critical times in their lives. In 2021, FFW extended this relationship with Arbor Housing and Development so as to keep this important funding stream open as need increased and COVID continued to impact so many that Arbor Development serves.

Women must be residents of Steuben, Chemung, Schuyler or Yates counties and be receiving case management through Arbor's Family Self-Sufficiency, Domestic Violence, or Supportive Housing programs. Individual grant decisions are made by a three-member committee and have a maximum of $1,500 per person.

Grants Distributed 2022:
$50,000

Fundraising Activities

Mother's Day Appeal

Mother's Day offers an opportunity to honor or memorialize the special women in the lives of our donors. To symbolize the lasting benefit these gifts make possible, FFW plants daffodils for each woman honored in community parks throughout the Southern Tier. 2022 marked our tenth year honoring women in our community. The hundreds of daffodils in bloom, individually and together, create a magnificent tribute to these special individuals.

Holiday Annual Appeal

As we reflect on our experiences, blessings, successes and challenges, the Fund for Women asks you to consider "paying it forward" to help others in our community. Look for the Annual Appeal letter just as the bustle of the season begins.

Inspire The FFW Annual Fundraising Dinner

It was with sadness that FFW again postponed our beloved Inspire Annual Fundraising Dinner event. As the pandemic maintained its hold on our lives, we made the choice to forego the event until such time as we felt assured the event could occur safely.

Given the advances made in managing the effects of the pandemic in 2022, we feel comfortable re-engaging with the highly anticipated return of Inspire in 2023!

FFW Spotlight: CONNECTing in Person Once Again

In October of 2022, we were finally able to once again hold Connect, our Annual Gathering, in person after two years of connecting solely online. We were so excited to see such a great turnout of women at the Arnot Event Center for an evening of networking and connections. It made us all realize just how much we had missed these kinds of opportunities to engage with our supporters and friends.

Addressing the audience of over 100 women in attendance that night, Fund for Women President, Amanda Chafee, welcomed everyone and shared the highlights of the activities the Fund had been involved with over the past year and introduced the incoming board members. She then introduced our guest speaker, Dr. Elisabeth Griffith.

Dr. Griffith is an activist, academic, and author of the newly published and critically acclaimed book, Formidable: American Women and the Fight for Equality 1920-2020. Dr. Griffith's presentation illuminated some of the lesser known women in American political history. Her fascinating tales of their courage and the roles each of them played in advancing the equal rights of women in this country had us all riveted to our seats.

Following her presentation, Dr. Griffith signed copies of her book which were available for purchase that night. Dr. Griffith took a moment with each person in line, in order to personalize a dedication to each and every one.

The evening wrapped up with raffle prizes for a number of lucky winners, and the promise of getting together again in the spring.

The combination of the delicious food, the attractive locale, the warmth of the speaker, and the connections and re-connections made among the attendees truly made it a special evening for all. We are looking forward to more in-person events like this in the coming year.

Our Donors

The Fund for Women continues to advance our mission with the generous contributions made by community members who support self-sufficiency and goal achievement for girls and women in the Southern Tier. We are truly honored to be stewards of your generosity and will be forthright and diligent in assuring your donations are used to bolster, support and empower girls and women in our community.
